

Ancaster Film Fest

Monday Night at the Movies

From the January 27th screenings, $1000 was donated to Hamilton Out of the Cold. Proceeds from today's screenings will go to Hamilton Out of the Cold Program and the John C Holland Awards.

Also today, we are partnering with the Fieldcote and Griffin House Museums to present the films as a Black History Month Event.

Monday February 24 - 1:00, 7:15 p.m. - La Belle Époque

Where so many high-concept romantic comedies squander their one big idea, "La Belle Époque" leverages its own to remind how and why we fall in love in the first place... Peter DeBruge/Variety

A sweet, inventive Richard Curtis-style romantic-comedy crowdpleaser that deftly balances hearty laughs and heartwarming emotion. Allan Hunter/Screen International

Monday February 24 - 4:00 p.m. - Sorry We Missed You

Loach has now done it again. His new film, "Sorry We Missed You," is another intimate and powerful drama about what's going on in people's everyday lives - not just in England, but all over the world. Owen Gliberman/Variety

A drama of such searing human empathy and quotidian heartbreak that its powerful climactic scenes actually impede your breathing. David Rooney/Hollywood Reporter
